X. DIRECTOR'S REPORT

The carpet cleaning and upholstery turned out beautifully. It was decided to have Steam Green come out and clean the rest of the chair upholstery as well as a couple spots that did not come clean during the initial cleaning.

Director Seaborn has completed many annual certifications that were due. The Certificate of Ballot for the upcoming election has been sent to both counties. A new student worker through SEAPCO will be joining us two days a week. Director Seaborn has several director and RSA meetings to attend this month.

Creative Bug is the new database. It started this month and we will have it for the next three years. After school clubs and the homeschool club resume this week. We will be hosting a teen art exhibit during the month of February and will host another art show for those 20 and up later this year. We continue to have adult movies once a month and adult craft night resumes January 25. January 31 will be soup day from 11 to 2. Summer reading plans are underway.
